SENATOR POLAND NOMINATED FOR CONGRESS.

Special Dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Vt., Aug. 7.—The 1st Congressional District Convention of this State, held here today, was the largest ever held, there being some 800 persons from Windham County alone, which is the south end of the district. The Hon. J. W. Colburn of Springfield was chosen President, and Mr. A. N. Swan of Bellows Falls Secretary. Judge Poland was nominated for Congress by acclamation, and was called upon and made a strong Union speech.

THE CAMPAIGN IN IOWA.—SPEECH OF SPEAKER COL.

PAX AT INDIANAPOLIS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 7.—The Hon. Schuyler Colfax has addressed the largest of the extraordinarily large outdoor meetings of the Union men in this city. He held an immense audience to come attention for nearly three hours, interrupted only by frequent applause. Whenever he has spoken the people have delighted to welcome him, and nowhere with greater enthusiasm than at Indianapolis. His speech to-night was a review of the Constitution and Amendment. It was a most oratorical effort, free from declamation, and where earnestness is truth it is true.

JOHN JOHNSON CONVENTION—IMPORTANT LETTER FROM

THE HON. THOMAS EWING.

Special Dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 7.—The Ohio Johnson delegation to-day selected the Hon. Thos. Ewing, Lewis D. Campbell, James F. Steedman, and Ex-Governor James S. Garfield as delegates at large to the Philadelphia convention. The resolutions are of little account. The probability of obtaining a State ticket was left with the Executive Committee. A letter from the Hon. Thos. Ewing, Lewis D. Campbell, and others, to Mr. Eliot Cost reported to their constituents, which once led to a committee assented upon him by about 500—Rebel troops—by "shaking hands with them as they quietly passed by, and every effort made to provoke a return, and thus give a pretext for their works of rebellion and Rebel malignity. Their efforts were directed to welcome him, and nowhere with greater enthusiasm than at Indianapolis. His speech to-night was a review of the Constitution and Amendment. It was a most oratorical effort, free from declamation, and where earnestness is truth it is true.

THE NORTH CAROLINA ELECTION.

RALEIGH, N. C., August 7.—The returns from the new Constitution vote are few and the vote so slight that it is impossible to speak of the result.

COLORED STATE CONVENTION IN TENNESSEE.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 7.—The Tennessee State Convention met and organized in this city yesterday. Delegates from 15 counties in the State were present, and these delegates were the leading colored men in the State.

Their object is to discuss questions of interest to the colored race in connection with agriculture, mining, manufactures and education. The Convention will probably be in session for three or four days.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATIONS IN MICHIGAN.

DETROIT, Aug. 7.—The Democrats of the 11th Congressional District renominated the Hon. Charles A. Eliot for Congress to-day.
